A Message From His Mom:

My sweet son was tragically taken from me on September 2, 2007 in a fatal car accident. The last words he spoke to me was I Love You Mom as he headed out the door to go to some friends house. I was woken by my youngest son telling me to get up, he thinks something bad has happened. I walked out of my bedroom at about 5am to be greeted by two troopers and a woman from DDS.

I began yelling where is my boy, they kept insisting on me sitting down. When those words fell from their mouths my whole world crumbled right beneath my feet. The emotions that soared through me can never be put into words. I wake each day now with a hugh part of my soul missing. I yearn to have him back, to feel his kisses on my cheek, and his smile beaming and his laugh echoing throughout the house.

To those who take the time to read this, never let the love you have for anyone be taken for granted. Never let your child walk out of your house without telling them you love them, kiss them. Hold them whenever you can, talk with them. Be with them. I have such a wonderful relationship with each of my three kids, we have always been very close and able to talk and cry with each other.

Hold true what God has blessed you with, for at any moment you may wake up and it will be gone. This pain is a hard one to hold. It wants to rip and tear at your very being. I have pictures of Victor everywhere, I talk to him daily, and I know he is still close and watching over us. I love you my sweet son Always and Forever.

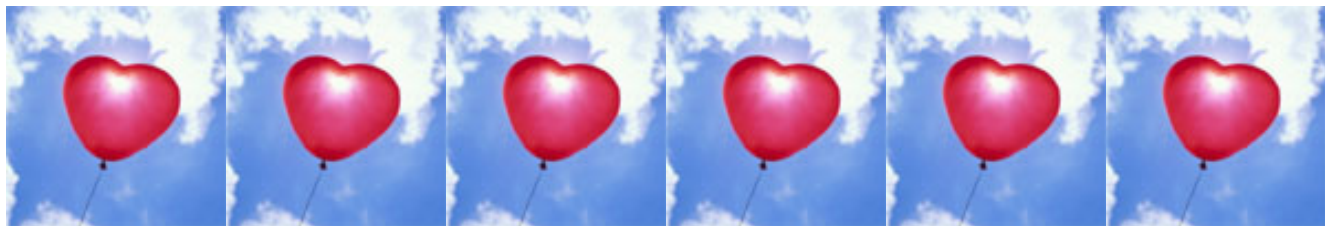

My God Bless Us All

Angel

Nobody knows what you're going through
But I know this much is true
I need you in my life
I need you by my side
I wanna see your face
I need to hear your voice
And I know that if it's meant
I'll have no choice
But I don't want...
I don't wanna let you go...
'Cause I know deep down in my heart
I feel it in my soul

It's gonna be hard
God take my heart
'Cause I don't want it anyway
I don't think that I can take

Feeling this hurt
I'm feeling the worst
Lord give me one more chance
Let me do all I can
'Cause I don't wanna say
Goodbye...

I wish I could turn back the hands of time
I wish that I can take the pain
This pain and suffering out of your life
Now I'm here in memories
Of how things how used to be
Can't hold these tears from falling from my eyes
Can't hold this hurting inside

It's gonna be hard
God take my heart
'Cause I don't want it anyway
I don't think that I can take
Feeling this hurt
I'm feeling the worst
Lord give me one more chance
Let me do all I can
'Cause I don't wanna say
Goodbye...

Hold me close
Don't let go
This can't be
Please no
It's not supposed to happen this way
You're supposed to live to see many days
With all your laughs
And all your smiles
I swear the angels can hear you from many miles
In my dreams he tells me but I already know

I just don't wanna let you go
It's gonna be hard
It's gonna be hard
But I don't wanna let...
I don't wanna let you go
'Cause I don't wanna say
Goodbye...
We Love You Victor

You were so full of life,
Always smiling and carefree,
Life loved you being a part of it,
And I loved you being a part of me.
You could make anyone laugh,
If they were having a bad day,
No matter how sad I was,
You could take the hurt away.
Nothing could ever stop you,
Or even make you fall,
You were ready to take on the world,
Ready to do it all.
But God decided he needed you,
So from this world you left,
But you took a piece of all of us,
Our hearts are what you kept.
Your seat is now empty,
And it's hard not to see your face,
But please always know this,
No one will ever take your place.
You left without a warning,
Not even saying good-bye,
And I can't seem to stop,
Asking the question why?
Nothing will ever be the same,
The halls are empty without your laughter,
But I know you're in Heaven,
Watching over us and looking after.
I didn't see this coming,
It hit me by surprise,
And when you left this world,
A small part of me died.
Your smile could brighten anyone's day,
No matter what they were going through,
And I know everyday for the rest of my life,
I'll be missing you.

TO MY DEAREST ONE ON EARTH.....

My dearest one, I'm sending this letter from above.
I know right now your're missing me, I can feel your love
You think about my birthday, and the day I had to leave.
But always remember this: I don't wish for you to grieve.

When I wrote my first letter, from Heaven on that day,
I wanted you to understand, that I was doing okay.
I knew the hurt of losing me, would take time for you to heal,
And even though it's been awhile, to you, it seems unreal.

But Mom, here in Heaven, with Jesus by my side,
The Golden Gate will open, when you come here to reside.
I know it's difficult for you, to understand your pain,
But once you arrive in Heaven, it all will be explained.

It's okay for you to cry, just let the tears give way,

Then tilt your head and look above, you'll feel my touch today.
Just keep the faith, believe my words, you'll see the morning light.
God and I are with you, every morning, noon and night.

WHISPERS FROM HEAVEN.....

They say that life is fleeting
I know that this is true
I left this world so quickly with no goodbye to you.

I know how much you miss me

Your tears fall ever light
The pillow where you lay your head
Is wet with them at night.

I know your heart is hurting
The words we left, unsaid.
"I love you" left unspoken
Are spinning in your head.

The strength that I have carried
That served to make you whole
Remains to make you stronger
Within your grieving soul.

For you see, while you were weeping
An angel came to see me.
She took me by the hand
And led me to a kingdom, in a very distant land.

As I look down from Heaven
And see you standing there
Your heart so ever burdened
With more weight than it can bear.

I long to bring you comfort
I long to give you peace
I long to hold you closely
Cause all your tears to cease.

The joy I've found in Heaven
Goes far beyond compare
The love that's so elusive
Can be found everywhere.

The light is softly shining
There's no storm clouds here or rain
There's no teardrops found in Heaven
There's no suffering, there's no pain.

You needn't be so troubled
Stay close to God and pray
For someday we'll be together

One bright and glorious day.

So Dear Mother, you shouldn't question.
My dear Mother, you need not cry.
I've gone to be with jesus
I really didn't die.

Sunny days seem to hurt the most
Wear the pain like a heavy coat
I feel you everywhere I go
I see your smile, I see your face
I hear your laugh' in the rain
I still can't believe you're gone

It ain't fair you died too young
Like a story that had just begun
But death tore the pages all away
God knows how I miss you
All the hell that I've been through
Just knowing, no one could take your place
Sometimes I wonder, who you'd be today

Would you see the world
Would you chase your dreams
Settle down with a family
I wonder what would you name your babies
Somedays the sky's so blue
I feel like I can talk to you
And I know it might sound crazy

It ain't fair you died too young
Like a story that had just begun
But death tore the pages all away
God knows how I miss you
All the hell that I've been through
Just knowing, no one could take your place
Sometimes I wonder, who you'd be today

Today, Today, Today...
Today, Today, Today...

Sunny days seem to hurt the most
I wear the pain like a heavy coat
The only thing that gives me hope
Is I know, I'll see you again someday

Someday, Someday...

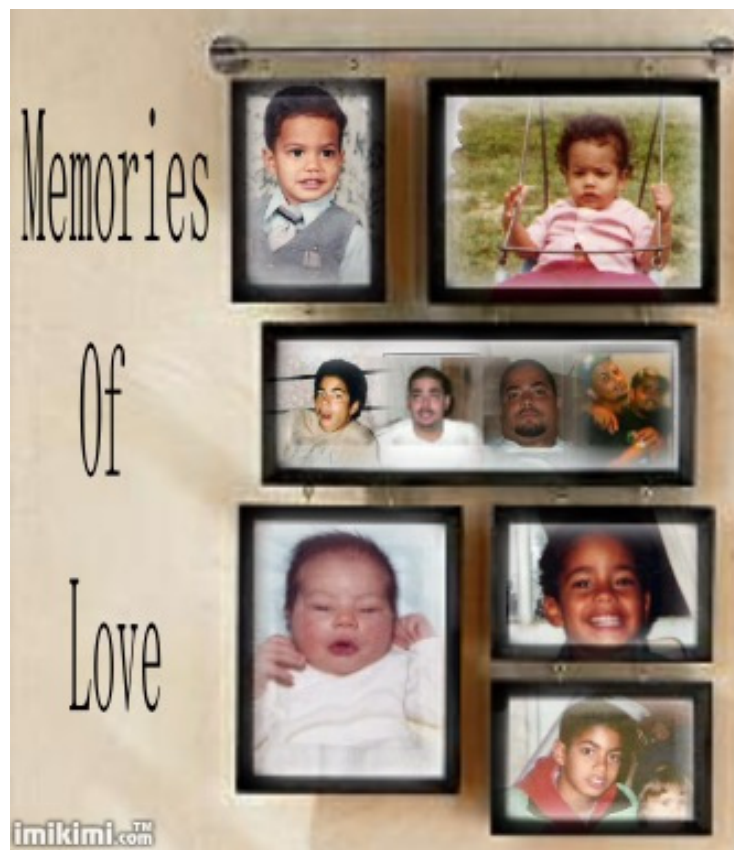

*Everyone is always asking me
what's wrong,
but I don't even think
it makes any sense,
its just... my heart hurts*

There is a majestic quality-
In everyone for all to see.
Some keep it hidden, some never realize-
The magnificence they hold in others' eyes.

Ah, yes, life itself is the gift.

Though the memory, itself, Time doth sift.
And some might think the reverence gone-
As those we love one by one pass on.

But the intricacies Fate doth weave-
In commemoration for all who grieve.
Are the blessings given to rebirth-
From souls no-longer of this earth.

At first notice I came undone,
My son staring at me through my grandson.
But, now, in joy I ascertain-
Through him, my son lives again.

I look to heavens' resounding grace-
Renewed appreciation of life and my place.
Knowing as each newborn child opens their eyes-
The miracle continues, no one really dies.

~Blowing Kisses to Heaven~

Blowing Kisses to Heaven,
That's what I can do,
Every time I want to say,
How much "I Love You"
Blowing Kisses to Heaven,
I know that you love me,
I am so blessed and so thankful,
That God sent you to our family.
Everyone that met you,
Claimed you as their own,
Gentle, so caring, so giving, so kind,
A truest gift, wrapped from God's heart to mine.
Now you are receiving,
Blessings so deserved,
And every time I think of you
I'll blow kisses to Heaven,
From my heart to yours !

In Loving Memory...

Victor S. Verdijo-Miller

I Feel A Tug

Angels are all around us
And with love they do surround us.

When my heart is sore in need
The Angels come, my soul to feed.

They come to me from up above and sing in whispers of Love.

When in my heart I feel a tug
I know that it's an Angel's hug.

Sending this little Angel's Hug
To Warm Your Heart
&
Bless Your Day

A mother's child is every breath that she takes, walking hand in hand, they are every step that she makes.

And as their steps will grow to strides,
still a child, in mother's eyes.

Every ache and pain they shall feel,
mother will share and with love she will kneel.

She will pray to God to take care of her child,
to protect and guide them through every mile.

Her child is the very core of her soul,
from baby in arms to an adult they will grow.

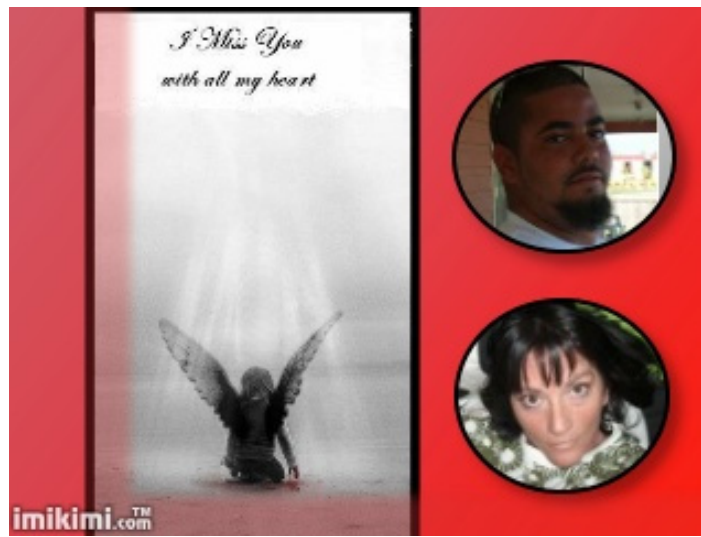

For to a mother, her child will stay,
the precious infant she held that day.

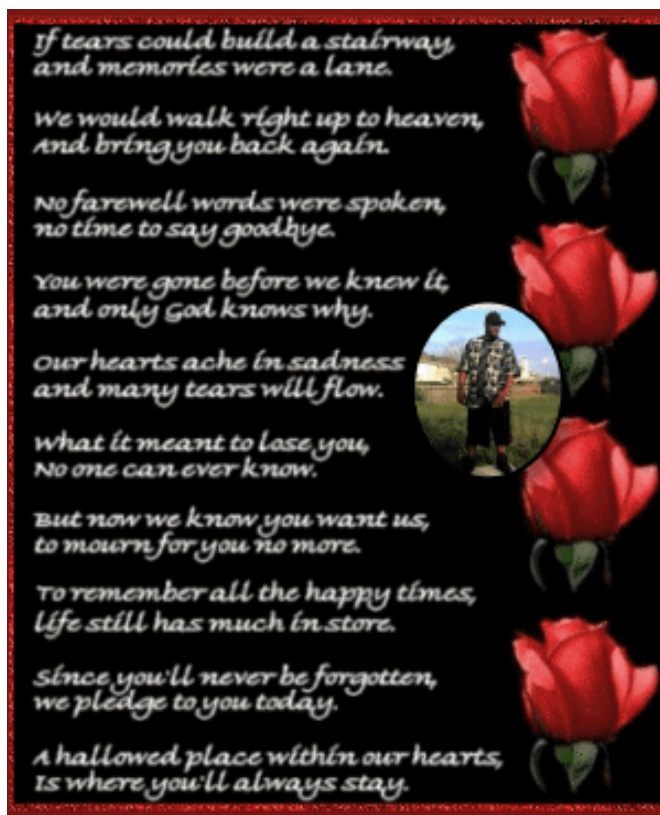

A MOTHER'S LOVE

A Mother's love is something that no one can explain,
It is made of deep devotion
and of sacrifice and pain;
It is endless and unselfish and enduring come what may

For nothing can destroy it or take that love away . . .
It is patient and forgiving
when all others are forsaking,
And it never fails or falters
even though the heart is breaking . . .
It believes beyond believing
when the world around condemns,
And it glows with all the beauty of the rarest, brightest gems . . .
It is far beyond defining,
it defies all explanation,
And it still remains a secret
like the mysteries of creation . . .
A many splendoured miracle man cannot understand
And another wondrous evidence of God's tender guiding hand.

The call that comes in darkest sleep,
Awakens with a fright;
For 2 am, the silence breaks
The peaceful calm of night.

When only moments earlier,
I dreamt of visions fair;
Of light and love and happiness;
... Till ringing filled the air.

It beckoned me from deepest sleep,
And drew me from my daze;
I shook my head to clear my mind,
Find focus through this haze.

"How long has this been ringing?"

As I reach to find the light;
I steal a glance toward the clock,
And now my heart takes flight!

'Tis many hours before the dawn,
Yet all should be in bed;
My loved ones faces fill the night;
... My heart is filled with dread.

I struggle for composure as
I reach to grab the phone;
My stomach churns, my heart contracts;
"Are all my kids at home?"

I stumble as I grasp the handle,
Stifle silent screams;
"Oh God ... please let this phone call
Be a part of just a dream!"

My heart is racing, mind's a whirl,
Receiver's made of lead;
"Oh, how can this be happening!"
"Who's on the other end?!"

Just seconds pass and yet I find
It's been eternity;
I raise the phone to panicked ear;
"Oh please ... don't be for me!"

*If ever you think of me out of the blue,
just remember it's all
the kisses I've blown in the air finally catching up with you!*

Do You Believe

Do you believe that dreams
Hold a meaning
But the meaning isn't what it seems
To be
Do you believe that miraculous things
Can happen to anybody
Do you believe in people with wings
They're called angels
Do you believe that angels are a present
A great wonder
That is sent
To those in need of a smile
Do you believe that dreams can come true
In a form other than expected
Because I do

Look Victor, Mia and Bussie.

I BELIEVE VICTOR TAUGHT US ALL ABOUT LIFE, HOW TO LAUGH, CARE, LOVE AND FOR SURE HOW TO SMILE. I AM BLESSED TO KNOW HIM AND HE SURE TAUGHT ME ALOT. GOD PUT HIM HERE TO TEACH ALL OF US, SO HIS BODY MAY BE GONE BUT HIS SPIRIT WILL BE HERE FOREVER AND I PRAY THAT ALL OF YOU KNOW THAT AND KNOW HE IS IN A BETTER PLACE.

Forever

December 31, 2007

One of the greatest lessons I've learned in life is this, just because the shell is left behind it doesn't mean you are gone. Your spirit lives on through your children and your family and your friends, and it is knowledge of that fact that gets us through the times of grief. You are here forever. Vic you will be missed by many and forgotten by none.

The background is a textured, mottled brownish-gold color. In the upper right quadrant, there are two roses. The one on the left is smaller and more tightly curled, while the one on the right is larger and more open, showing more of its petals. The roses are rendered in a slightly darker shade than the background, giving them a subtle, embossed appearance.

Hi Baby,

Today is Angela's birthday. I made her a cake. Red Velet, she likes that kind. Not doing much special today. They all went out last night with her to celebrate.

Of course I nearly lost my mind because she did not get home till nearly 5am and she wasn't answering her phone. So of course, I began thinking the worst horrible thoughts imaginable. But she is ok, only sitting at her friends house talking.

When I finally heard from her i just broke down and cried.

Baby, I don't know how to move forward. All I do is fear that something bad is going to happen to Angie or Freddie now. I think I am going crazy maybe. I don't do anything but go to work and come home. I only go out if I have to go to a store. I know I need to break out of this but I just can't seem to do it. I have been having really crazy dreams, I can't make out what they may mean.

Baby, please ask God to help me to recover from all this. Ask him if he can take this horrible pain from me and help me to stand up again. Please Victor.

Baby, I miss you so much. Blowing Kisses to you by the hundreds.

Love, Always and Forever, MOM

4/23/2008

Hi my sweet son. First thing I must tell you is how much I love and miss you. I am sitting here with a tear ready to fall down my face, leaving yet another trail of my pain that I hold. As I sit here at this computer and talk with you I look at the pictures of you i have above the monitor. I see your big smile and your eyes that sparkle with life, and I wonder why again.

I hate the way things have changed so much, some changed fast others seem to change slowly. I sit in this house by myself and wish so hard that I could just see you for a minute. Just to tell you I love you. To be able to reach up and touch your face.

You know Victor, for a mother it does not matter the age of her child, for she can only feel the loss of her beautiful baby. My little man, my little angel. Taken away from me so swiftly and suddenly. Without any reason. I just want to hold you and comfort you, tell you I am here. I know that you do not want me to be sad but I sometimes am overtaken with it and I just can't control it. It just seeps into me and explodes inside of me and the only escape is through the ever present tears.

Sometimes I sit outside and imagine you there, how we would be talking and you would laugh about something and get so excited. I miss you so much Vic. so very much.

Baby, please stay close and watch over us from heaven. Please help me to learn to live with this, cause someday I think I am going crazy.

Please come to see me in my dreams tonight sweetheart, I will wait for you.

Always and Forever, MOM

4/21/2008

Victor, thank you for making sure Angie got home to us safe. I feels good that we are all together again. The thing missing is you sweetheart, but that is a hole that will forever tear at us. We love you so much and miss you everyday. It is not the same, we have to adjust so much to the change, it is hard. You know everything I do, everywhere I go, I think of you. I think of you when Freddie and I are BBQing outside and drinking a beer. I miss you when Angela needs to be teased. I miss you when little Aidan gets sad over you. I miss you when I see Freddie doing things alone now. I miss you whenever I see a motorcycle.

I miss you whenever Freddie is changing the oil in one of the cars. I miss you when we are doing yard work. I miss you when we go to IHop to eat. I miss you when I am alone and by myself. I miss you when I hear this song. I miss you whenever I think of your sons. I miss you when the sun is shining brite. I miss you whenever I hear someone speak your name. I miss you when we are watching a movie together. I miss you when I look at your pictures. I miss you whenever I walk into the closet and see your things. I miss you when I am cleaning the house. I miss you when I am sitting out in the garage. I miss you everytime I get into the Olds. I miss you when I see Akil. I miss you when I hear from Jenn. I miss you at night when I am saying my prayers. I miss you when I wake up. I just miss you and your smile and your laugh. I miss everything.

God knows how I wish I could have you back.

Baby please stay close to me, please continue to let me know you are always close to me. I will always stay alert. I will always know that it is you. I can feel you when You are near me. I just know it is you.

Baby Always and Forever. We will always be a strong family in life and death. And shortly we will all be together again. I believe that with every part of my being. Do dont worry my sweet son, we will be there soon. I love you. MOM

Aunt Luann

Hi Victor! I just want to tell you that I was having kind of a stressful day today. Grandma, uncle Danny & Aunt Wanda left for Iowa yesterday morning to go see your great grandpa. He is not doing very well sweetie. I am by myself, and I was worried about them, but me and your mom got on the phone together and talked almost an hour. I loved hearing her voice Vic, I can't wait yo see her! Talking to her made me feel more at ease, like I was not alone here. Then we spent alot of time online together too, sharing pictures. I love you so much Sweetie! I miss you too! Please watch over our family while they are apart from us, and keep them safe. Good night Victor, I love you!

4/19/2007

Hi Baby,

wow was I lazy today. I didn't do anything, well I did get my bedding washed and got some pictures burned onto a CD. I talked to Luann on the phone for about an hour this morning. Than we where on messenger for a good long while.

Grandma is in Iowa with Danny and Wanda. Your Great Grandpa is not doing so good. He has been in the hospital for seven weeks. I am glad Mom got to go to see him.

I went to Walmart and picked up a case to organize my picture CDs. I am getting so many of them now.

I did get the house cleaned up last night though, so I didn't have any house work to do today. Freddie was gone most of the day. He went to a Bob Marley festival with Logan and Daniel. And Angie is still one the East coast.. She went to New York today to spend he last day with Geronimo. She will be home tomorrow night. I am glad cause I miss her. Aidan has been good while she has been gone though. I wanted to wash the Olds today and wash the windows in it, but I never did. I will get up tomorrow and clean it.

I played on the internet for awhile, downloaded a few things for my phone and copied all the pictures on my phone to the computer so I can get them on disk too.

I am really tired, I guess cause I didn't really do anything today. I didn't even watch TV. Aidan is Watch Shriek right now. He loves Shriek, but so do I.

I will be glad when it is over thought cause I am ready to go to sleep.

Baby, I will see you in my dreams. I wait for you every night. I love you with all my heart, I miss you with all my being. Please stay close and continue to let us know you are always near.

Sweet dreams baby, hugs and kisses. Always and Forever MOM

Victor, today was a nice day. I got home from work and Freddie was outside smoking a Brisket. As soon as I walked in I could smell it, it smelt so good. He was sitting outside and when he seen me he got a big ole grin on his face. He showed me the brisket, it was hugh. He started it around 1:30 this afternoon. We ate around 8:30. It was well worth the wait. It tasted so good. I ran up to the store for him right after I got home and picked up a few things he needed. When I got back him and I sat outside and talked together while the Brisket cooked. It was so nice to have him all to myself. The weather was nice and warm, the sun was behind the clouds and the wind was blowing. We went inside and started watching Iron Ring, I think that is what it's called. He has gotten me hooked on that show. You would love it. These guys are crazy! There was a marathon on tonight so it was about two hours long. We ate dinner together and watched the show. It was funny, Angie called us from Delaware and Freddie was teasing her telling her we where having fun without her and we didn't miss her. She laughed. But she knows we miss her. I just went in to tell Freddie goodnight and he has fallen asleep across his bed. I didn't wake him. He looked so comfortable. I love him so much Vic, He is such a good person. I am happy that he has found someone who makes him feel good. And Tanya seems like a nice person too. I want to try to get to know her better. But I am sure I will.

I drove Angie's Lexus to work today. It is really nice, but it is to big for me. You know me, I like those little cars. But man it does move. You barely hit the gas and it is off. But I will just stick to my ole Olds, it suits me just fine for now. I still have to get that window fixed on it. But I just never seem to have the extra money. Oh well. You so what you can, right!!!

Baby I love you and I miss you very much. I hope you stay close to us always, I know you do, sometimes I can just feel you. And I get such a calmness come over me.

I am going to go to bed now, it is late. Tomorrow is Friday, and I am ready for it. It seemed like a log week to me. I think cause Angie is not here. I love you much, sweet dreams Vic. I will wait for you in my dreams. Please come and visit with me. I would love that.

Good night, Always and Forever, MOM

4/13/2008

Hi Victor,

I had a pretty emotional day. Why does this happen. I think I am doing better and than just out of the blue I just loose it. I sit and start crying and my heart just begins to break all over again. Victor I don't know if I can do this honey, I feel so hurt and warn now.

It is like the whole world has changed right before my eyes. Nothing is familiar anymore. I try so hard to make it through each day, but it is like a challenge everyday. How could God have done this to me, I just don't understand anything. How could he take you away from so many that needed you?

I roam through this house, and work myself to exhaustion just to keep myself busy. I try to get lost in housework, laundry. God do you know how many times I have shampooed the carpet? But it takes me hours and I am busy. I washed mine and Aidan clothes today, made cookies, vacummed, sweep and mopped, I even cooked dinner.

And know it is 6:30 and I am just whating for dinner to finish so I can feed Aidan and put him to bed. Just so I can go to bed. I am so tired right now. From all the work I did today and the emotions that seemed to control me today. Plus I couldn't sleep last night, because I was so scared that Freddie wasn't going to make it home to me. Victor sometimes I think I am losing my mind.

Baby I love and miss you so much. I wish I could just close my eyes and ask God to please let you come home to me. I would open them and you would be standing there with your smile. You would hug me and tell me you where sorry I was sad. And you would promise me you will always be there.

If only wishes really did come true.

I have to go finish dinner baby. I just wanted to tell you that you where so heavy on my mind and heart today.

God how do I miss you!!!

Please always let me know you are close to me, anyway you need to .

I love you my sweet son.

Always and Forever, MOM

Hi Baby,

Well Angie is in Delaware. I know she is happy, she gets so home sick now. She got to spend some time with Aunt Aixa. She sent me a picture and they look so much alike. That is so cool.

She got to see the boys too and she sent me pictures of him. He looks so much like you Victor. His eyes are your eyes. I know you are so proud of your sons.

Akil and April come by tonight to see me. I was really happy for the company cause Angie is gone and Freddie was out with Tanya, so I was just sitting here feeling kinda lonely. They have been so good to me. I am thankful to have them in my life. God is looking over me.

Freddie went out tonight, so I am a bit nervous. I will be like this for the rest of my life. Please watch over him Vic, please and make sure he is ok and gets home to me safely.

Him and I cut the grass earlier today, it took us a couple of hours but it looks nice. It was such a beautiful day today. It was like took a pot of gold and melted it and spread it out across the sky. The sun was so bright and clear today. It was breezy and warm. Just perfect. The only thing missing was you.

Freddie took me for a ride on his bike the other day. I am sure you where watching us. I was so happy. He took me for a long ride to, but we went slow because we didn't have a helmet on. A little dog ran out after us just before we got to our street. It was funny. You know Freddie, he acted like he was going to run it over. He is so crazy.

I am getting ready for bed sweetheart, I want to tell you goodnight and I love you. I will wait for you in my dreams. Kisses and Hugs.

4/10/2008

Hi Victor,

I am so glad tomorrow is Friday. It has been a long week. i am really looking forward to having two days off. Angie is leaving for Delaware early Sat morning. Her flight leaves at 6:40am. wow we are going to have to get up at around 4am. Thats crazy. I already know we won't get much sleep, cause i have to do her hair for her Friday night and she still has packing to do. She is going to be gone for over a week..

Freddie and I are going to watch over Aidan while she is gone, but I kinda wish I had went ahead and went with her know. I need to stop worrying so much about things and just do what I want to do sometimes. I might not get another chance.

I will miss Angie, please watch over her Vic and make sure she gets back home to me safely.

She is going to stop and see Aunt Aixa and Jessica on Sat. That will be nice, and she is excited to see them. I know your Aunt Aixa is excited too.

I told Aixa tonight I am planning on coming out this summer late. And I am planning on spending some time with her.

We all miss you so much Vic, things are just so quite around here now. I keep expecting to see you come busting in through the front door, with you big smile and laughing.

Or when I am hanging out in my room and you would come running in and jump across the bed with a big smile on your face. And you would ask me what am I doing. I would look at you and smile so big, who could ever hold back a smile with you around. I would reach over and touch your face and you would smile even bigger. Than you would lean over and kiss your momma on the cheek and jump up and run out again. Oh how I miss that! Sometimes when I wake on Saturday morning I just lay there and wait.....cause you would alway run into the room and make sure I was up, jump on the bed and smile at me with that beaming bright smile. You would tell me to get up Mom, the day is early. You couldn't wait to get your day started and you wanted to make sure everyone was up to start it with you. yeah I lay there sometimes, hoping, hoping you are going to come running in and jump on the bed. My sweet little boy. So full of mischeif. God how I miss you so.

Victor I will be waiting for you tonight in my dreams. We can sit and talk and laugh. And before you leave you can lean over and give your momma a kiss on my cheek.

Sweet dreams my Angel

Always and Forever, MOM ❤️❤️❤️❤️

Angie

Hey Vic,

I miss you so much. Everyday I wish I could just hear you come thru the door. Life will never be the same without you. My life will definitely be less full now that you are not here to share things with. I got a new car a couple of weeks ago and all I could think about were the last two times I bought a car you were with me and helped me make my choices. So it was a bittersweet experince. I know you would love the car I got though and think about what you would say about it. I will be going to DE on Saturday, I'm excited cause I will get to see Lil Vic and Jason. I miss them so much. I can't wait to see everyone. Well I'm going to go get ready for bed. Just know that you will always be in my thoughts and forever in my heart. Keep an eye on me while I'm travling. I love you and miss you so much Vic.

Love,

Angie

Aunt Luann

Hi Vic! I am just sitting here thinking about you. I think about you everyday! I miss you so much! I will be coming out to Texas in May, I am so excited to see everyone! I wish I could see you, but I know I can't. I know you will see me though, but you always do, I know that. You are always here with your family, no matter where we are. I can only hope that I can bring some happiness to your mom's life while I am there. I know she is sad, but I also know you don't want to see her like this. You want to see her laugh and smile, and enjoy her life, just like I do. I can't wait to get there to see everybody, I am so excited! I am gonna get one of my tattoos while I am there, sort of like a souvenir from Texas! That is one I won't lose, huh? I love you sweetie, and I think of you all the time! I miss you so much! I may not write much, but I write when I need to. You know that I don't have to write it down for you to know I love you, and I miss you! I know you are all around all of us, watching over, and keeping us safe. Take care of your mom, and know that I will be there with her soon! I love you Vic! Good night, and I know you and Grandpa are watching over us all!! My Angels!!

4/6/2008

Hi Baby, I went and got a new tattoo today. The one I drew of you three names intertwined together. It turned out so nice. I love it so. I placed a heart above each of your names and a tear is falling from your heart. I wish you could see it, I know you would like it.

April was going to go with me when she got off from work today, but I got up this morning and just couldn't wait. So you know me I took off by myself. I have to call her tomorrow and tell her. I don't want her to think I didn't want to spend time with her, I was just anxious.

I am afraid Freddie and Akil are going to fall away from each other Victor. I don't know what to do. Can you please help me keep this from happening. So much is changing Vic, so much. I just won't stop. I feel so depressed more and more everyday. I just want things back the way the where. It is going to hurt me so much if their friendship suffers.

Victor, I wish so much that you were here, cause it seems that life itself is falling apart. I just want to hang onto what was, I don't want anything else to change, I don't want to lose anyone else. Jenn left with your boys, Dana and her brothers left. And now Akil and April seem to be moving away. I don't want them to go. I want them to stay close to us and especially Freddie. Danile or Logan don't come around much anymore. It is like everything is spinning and I am stuck here in the middle. I try to watch and see but everything is spinning around me so fast. I want to reach out and grab hold and stop it from spinning but I can't. It is moving so fast it is all blurred. Victor, I don't think I can keep up with this. I just want to lock myself in my room and never come out sometimes. I want to hide away, I want to stop hurting, but more and more I hurt.

Some have been asking me if I am going to the bike show this year. I have been telling them that you always rode me. How can I go now? They say that I should go because you would want me to. But I don't know if I will. It just seems everything is so sad now, everything I do reminds me of you. You always stayed so close and involved in our lives. Such a large part of my soul has been stripped away from me. I sit and stare at your pictures all the time, your eyes. I touch the cold glass hoping that I will be able to feel your sweet face on my finger tips. But it is just cold. How do I get up from this one Vic? How baby. Everyday I wake I tell myself we can do this. I push myself through. Some days are easy and some are so hard. But not a day goes by that a tear does not fall from my eye.

I wipe them away, and I pray to God to please help me stay strong. I pray to God to keep us. I pray to God keep you. This life has seemed long and tortures at times, but there is no torture that compares to this pain. For all the rest of my days I have to carry this with me. I have often wondered how a mother copes with losing a child, I have often cried listening to stories told. But never would I have thought that I would be one of those mothers who has had a part of her taken away. People can only say you are strong and it will be ok. It is going to get better, it will not hurt forever. But they do not know my pain, nor can they feel my heart Victor. My heart hurts, it hurts like it has never hurt before. I know you do not want me to be sad, but Vic I cannot stop it. I do try everyday to be happy. Sometimes I am and laughter escapes me. But so short it is. Baby, I know you are close to us. I know you will always be. I know you will be there waiting when we are called home. That will be a beautiful day when we will all be together again. But until then, we have to continue on until God is ready for us. I suppose that he is not done with me yet. So here I must stay, in this hell. I will continue and try to do what he needs me to do.

Baby, please just stay as close as you can always. I need to know that you are near me. That is what keeps me going. The little things, the quite things. Just feeling you, sensing you, is enough to keep me going. I need that Victor. So please stay close.

I love you with all my heart and soul. Please watch over Angie and Freddie always.

Always and Forever, MOM

4/3/2008

Vic, I heard from Dana today. It was good to hear from her. She was driving back from Arizona with her brother. She told me she is going to try and stop in and see me before they go to Houston. I hope so. I never get to see her anymore. It is kinda weird that everyone seemed to just take off. I kinda don't understand. Akil and April stay close, but you knew they would. I love when they pop in and visit us. It is always so nice.

I am so glad tomorrow is Friday, it has been a rough week at work. Not that it has been that busy, it is just there is so much crap that goes on there. I have been thinking about finding a new job. Maybe up in Georgetown. It is so much quieter up there. I am just getting so bored with the job. There is no room for growth here.

I am thinking about signing up to be a foster mother. I think that would be nice now that I am older. To take in some little kids that are having it rough. What do you think Vic? I really think I would enjoy that. To maybe help change the life of a young person in a positive way.

Angie and Freddie are doing ok. Freddie is gone a lot with his girl, but that is ok. He really likes her a lot. I am happy for him.

Angie is still working her two jobs. I don't see much of her through the week. Just at night. She come in around 9 to 9:30. takes a shower and goes to bed because she has to get back up at 5am.

Freddie put grass seed down and the grass is really thick and green. You would like it. I know how much you liked working in the yard. We are going to get some mulce too for around the front of the house where the bushes are. I am thinking about putting some flowers out back, but I am afraid these dogs will tear them up. They are so bad. I caught Mia trying to dig under the fence today trying to get to the neighbors yard. She better watch out, that big ole dog will eat her for a snack.

Vic you know how much I miss you. I tell you everyday. I just don't understand. I have been having feeling of anger the last couple of weeks. I just feel mad all the time. then I start to cry. Sometimes I feel like just breaking something or throwing something. Why would God put us through so much crap. It seems like this whole life has been a fight. And just when we get to a place that is good and happy he takes you away. There is such a huge hole in me now. I don't even feel like me anymore. Everytime I look at Angie and Freddie my heart breaks. They dont have you anymore to watch over them. To be there. You guys where always together, always watching out for each other. You where always the protector. I never worried much with you around you know. I always knew you would not let any harm come on us.

I miss riding on your bike with you . the weather is warming up and everyone is out on their bikes. so of course I start to think of you. Put I smile, because I always loved riding with you.

I still want to get my own bike someday Vic, I know you do not want my to give up on my dreams. I am going to try. And I know Freddie will take me out to learn.

Vic, I am going to go, I have to get a shower. Baby i love you so much. At times I can feel you close to me. Please stay there. I need to know you are still with me. I am sorry I cry so much, but it still hurts a lot not to have you here. But I know I will see you again someday and we will hug and laugh and I will have my baby back.

Sweet dreams Vic. I will wait for you in my dreams tonight.

Always and Forever MOM

Mommy

Hi baby, I called Lil Vic tonight. He told me he is doing good in school. And he got some new games for his birthday. I really miss him. I told him I will really try and send him your cards this week. i hope i don't forget.

Angie will be able to see them in a couple of weeks, she is going to DE. I am sure everyone is excited to see her.

I am going to go buy the wheel cylinders and the new brake lines tomorrow. I am hoping Freddie will put them on for me this weekend. I am sure he will.

Baby, i am going to bed now. I am tired and the nights seem really short.

I love you so much and miss you with every beat of my heart. I just wish I could see you, hear you.

Baby, please come see me in my dreams, stay close and continue to let us know you are always around.

Sweet dreams Vic, Always and Forever, MOM

Hi Victor,

Haven't been sleeping very well again lately. And I have been havig a rough time too. I broke down Thursday night again. I cried so hard my eyes where swollen the next morning. My heart is just so heavy.

Wendy's mom, Tina, moved into their new house yesterday. I went over and helped them as best I could. They invited out to dinner with them. It was nice to go. I enjoyed myself and I know Angie is happy I went. She don't like that I stay couped up in the house all the time now. After dinner Tina and I sat out on the back porch and talked. It was so nice to have someone to talk to. Vic she lost her baby too. It was nice to have someone to talk to and listen to. She is such a wonderful person. I really like her and I hope that we will be able to develope a good friendship. He husband is really funny too. Plus I got to meet a couple of their friends, and they where really nice too.

Angela and Wendy took the kids to see a movie today and Freddie spent the day with Tanyas kids and than he went over to her house after she got off work. I miss him, but I know I cannot hany onto him to tightly. I just worry when he is not home with me. But I know I will worry even more from now on everytime they step out of the house until they walk back in.

Victor please continue to stay close to us and watch over us. I know you see me crying a lot, please just let my know you are close when you can, it makes me feel better to feel you near me.

I love you with all me heart and soul. Always and Forever, MOM

Mommy 3/26/2008

 Hi baby, well finally got the alignment on the Olds. It kinda sucks I had to get it done twice. I think Freddie is going to the first place I went where they charged me 90 bucks and than said they could align the front cause the back needed a sim kit. Will the place I took it today got all four wheels aligned for 89.00. And they are straight. I need the brake lines for the front and brake cylinders for the back. I am going to get them this weekend. Freddie said he can put them on. Than the car will be safe. I still have to get the drivers side door fixed. I hope I can get that done before it gets real hot, cause the A/C is not that good in the car. And with that funny little plastic window, well the heat just comes right in. Plus it cracked on me one day when i was driving and it was windy. I guess the wind caught it and it just cracked. I thought it was going to fly out. It was kind of funny, seeing me driving down 45 trying to hold onto my window. But I will get it fixed Vic, I know you are watching over me and it will all work out.

I am still going to get the new carpet too, but that will have to wait until i get the rest of the car done. And I am going to try and paint it. Oh and the radiator too. But doesn't seem to think it needs to be done right away, because it leaks so lightly. But I still want to go ahead and fix it just to know it is done.

Angie is hanging in there with her two jobs. She is getting used to it now. She is doing ok Vic, you would be proud of her. I know you are. Freddie is doing really good. He really likes Tanya, I think this might be the girl that steals his heart. He is really happy with her. He really misses you baby, he don't talk much about it, but I know he does, sometimes I can just see it in his eyes. I am sad for me so often. You two are so close. But I know you are with him all the time.

We have our quarterly meeting tomorrow at work so I have to stay late. I was supposed to take Aidan to an event at school, but I forgot about our quarterly meeting. I asked Freddie if he would take him and he said he would. Freddie is such a good man Vic. He is really watching over us and taking care of us. You know he does give Angie such a hard time though, I know you laughing sometimes at them two. I just think if you where here you would be laughing so hard at them. But they love each other so much. Please keep them always close Victor.

Baby it is late and I still have to finish my laundry before I go to bed. I wanted to stop in and tell you how much I am missing you. I had a rough night last night, but I am sure you already know that. I just started crying and I couldn't stop. Than I just couldn't fall asleep. I am really sleepy tonight, I am sure I will fall asleep ok tonight.

Baby I love you with all my heart. Please keep us close to you always and protect us as you always have.

Always and Forever. MOM ❤️❤️❤️❤️

Mommy

Hi baby, well this weekend was a long one. But it is sunday night and time to go bed and get ready for work tomorrow.

I spent all day on Friday cleaning out the inside of the OLds. And Saturday I worked out in the back yard. I spoke to Luann a couple of times on messenger. Today angie and I went to Tinas house for a BBQ. It was nice. Quite. After we left there we went Akil and Aprils. They where BBQing too. Freddie was there with Tanya. We hung out there for a little while. I got to see Vicious and Josie. They are both so much bigger than Cherrie. But Josie has one cyrstal blue eye. It is awesome. Cherrie has a partial blue eye. They say it is a rarity for that to come out in a Daschund. It is so cool that our puppies got that. Vicious looks just like Bussie.

April sent me a bunch of pictures from Sat. night. Looks like they were having a lot of fun. I should have went over there, instead of just sitting in the house. Vic i am going to try and start doing stuff. I know it's not good for me to stay couped up in the house all the time. I know that you do not want me to do that either. I am really going to try and make an effort baby.

I miss you so much. It is just kinda hard for me, cause everything just reminds me of you so much. But i want it to. I just have to learn not to feel so sad when the memories come flooding in, which is 99.9% of the time. i love it when everyone talks about you. Akil told me today the Little Man was asking about you and wants us to send him some pictures of you. I told Akil I would get some together for him. I am sure I have some of you and him together, I think he would like those. Everyone misses you so much Vic. We all do. I wish we could wish you back home.

Baby I am going to go to bed now. I love you. The Holidays just are the same anymore. Dont think they ever will be.

Sweet dreams my sweet son, I will see you in mine.

Always and Forever, MOM xoxoxoxoxoxoxo

From Heaven

If you wait for me
then I'll come for you
Although I've traveled far
I always hold a place for you in my heart
If you think of me
If you miss me once in awhile
Then I'll return to you
I'll return and fill that space in your heart

Remembering
Your touch
Your kiss
Your warm embrace
I'll find my way back to you
If you'll be waiting
If you dream of me
Like I dream of you
In a place that's warm and dark
In a place where I can feel the beating of your heart

Remembering
Your touch
Your kiss
Your warm embrace
I'll find my way back to you
If you'll be waiting
I've longed for you
And I have desired
To see your face your smile
To be with you wherever you are

Remembering
Your touch
Your kiss
Your warm embrace
I'll find my way back to you
Please say you'll be waiting
Together again
It would feel so good to be
In your arms
Where all my journeys end
If you can make a promise
If it's one that you can keep
I vow to come for you

If you wait for me
And say you'll hold
A place for me
I in your heart.

Mommy

Well another day has come and gone. I am sitting here longing for you. Tears are rolling down my face and my heart is aching. I want to sob out, but I let the tears just fall silently down my face. I keep telling myself things will ease and this pain will start to subside, but I am beginning to believe that I will carry this pain for ever. Sometimes I just sit alone and think of you. Wonder if you are thinking of us. I am sure you are. There are things that happen often that I am sure it is you. I know you are letting me know that you are still very close to me.

I am glad we have a long weekend. I am looking forward to it. I am going to work on the olds on Friday and give it a really good scrub. Hopefully Freddie will be able to take it for its alignment too.

I forgot to ask him when I got home if he was able to get ahold of the guy. I will ask him when he gets home if it I am still up. He went to the movies tonight. He seems to really like this girl Vic. It is good to see him happy like he is. I am so proud of my two sons. Freddie is a good man and any woman is lucky to have him.

Angie is still working hard. She gets home and I get to see her for a bit than we go to bed. But she is a tough girl. Strong. She is making things happen for her and I am proud of her for it. She has so much potential, I think she is finally realizing it. Aren't you proud of her.

Ok, sweetheart, I am going to bed. I wanted to let you know how much I love you. How much we miss you. Please stay close always Victor. I need you near.

Always and Forever, MOM ❤️❤️❤️

Mommy

Hi baby,

I miss you.

We found a place where we can get the Olds aligned. Freddie is supposed to call so I can take the car there. Tanya gave him the number. The owner of the shop gets his hair cut at her store. The other place I went said it would cost me 300 dollars to get all four wheels aligned. That is a lot of money.

I am still trying to get the drivers door fixed too. The cheapest place I found so far for that is 300 dollars too. But I guess I will just do a little at a time. I scrubbed the drivers side door panel on Sunday and I was surprized how clean it came. It looks good. I am going to scrub the whole inside this weekend since we have a long weekend. Once I get all the mechanical stuff done than I am going to buy new carpet for it. I think I am going to have to get a new radiator too, but Freddie said he can put that in for me. I will get it, just one little thing at a time. I know you are watching over me and you will help me.

Freddie said he is going to clean the fuel filter out too, he said that will help it run better. I love to drive the car, I just feel so close to you. I know how much you liked the car.

Angie is working so much now I hardly get to see her. Only on weekends and a few minutes at night. I help Aidan with his homework and make sure he gets fed dinner. I haven't heard from Jen and the boys in a while. I miss them.

Baby I am going to bed now. I have another headache. I have to remember to call the Doctor tomorrow and make that appointment.

I love you so much Victor, Life is so different now. Everything seems to have changed so much. Sometimes I wish I could fly, I would fly to heaven and visit with you. I wish we could do that.

Sweet dreams my sweet son, I miss your smile and your kisses on my cheek.

Always and Forever MOM ❤️❤️❤️

My Loving Son

My Heart aches like frostbite from a
Cold, wet, dark winter night
He was killed in a head on collision
Nobody really knows how or why
My Loving Son
Tears of pain just keep flowing like
The pouring rain in a thunderstorm

No more 'I Love You, Mom'
No phone calls
No Visits, No Hugs
My Loving Son
I know He now has Wings
And His Halo is Gold...
He is Smiling and Happy
Like a Soft love Song
No Pain No Hurt,
Oh How I Miss
My Loving Son

Hi Victor,

Nothing much going here lately. Same old thing everyday but I haven't been up to doing much anyway. Talked to your Cousin John and his wife Barb the other night. They finally got a computer and are learning how to use it. You remember John don't you? They live in Colorado. Danny put up a new railing for me on the deck. Now I feel a lot more comfortable going up and down the steps. I have a new little puppy dog now. Part chihuahua and part terrior. He weighs about 4 pounds and his name is Scrappy. :-> I love him to pieces. Have to go now Baby. I love you and again, Happy Birthday.

Aunt Luann

Your mom sent me the pictures of the Balloons they let go for you yesterday, and they we beautiful! I hope they all reached you! I will be doing the same for you today, Grandma and I are sending some messages up to you. I told your mom that we were going to do that for you too, and she said it would be nice. I wish you were here so I could give you the biggest birthday Hug & Kiss! I miss you Sweetie. I love you so very much!

HAPPY BIRTHDAY VICTOR!!!!

Happy Birthday Victor,

I hope you liked the balloons. We watched them until they disappeared into heaven. Did you enjoy all the messages? We all missed you so much today. Tina, Wendys mom, told me about the balloons with messages tied to them. She set them off for her son Wesley on his birthday. It was such a good idea, I love her for sharing that with me. I only cried a little bit, I held it in, because I didn't want my eyes to water up and I wouldn't be able to watch all the balloons float up to you.

We blew out the candles on your cake for you. I would have liked to have gone to the lake today, but everyone had to work and it would be dark by the time we got there, so we let them go from the backyard. But it was still nice, right here from home.

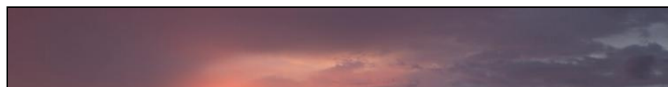

Today was Sheilas birthday too, we went to eat dinner with her april and akil. But I was missing you so much I really didn't enjoy myself very well. I kinda just sat there and listened to everyone laughing and talking and just stayed quiet. Than we went back to Sheilas house but I didn't stay. I came home. Angie stayed here with Aidan because they are both sick. Angie hasn't felt good all day. I hope she feels better tomorrow. I think her and Freddie are going to go car shopping tomorrow. You know Freddie and I are trying to talk her into buying a really good Olds, but she wants something newer. She told me today that if you where here you would be on her side, telling her to get what she wants. She is right, you always did look out for her. You spoiled her Vic. :)

Well baby it is late and I am really tired. I hope you enjoyed your day. It would have been so much nicer if we where all together. But I know you where here with us. I pray you visit me in my dreams baby. It will make me smile.

I love you with all my heart.

Always and Forever, MOM ❤️❤️❤️🥰

Hi sweetheart. I miss you but you know that. I couldn't sleep well last night. There was a weird light in my room last night and then it went dark. I sat up in bed and called out to you. I just keep expecting to see you, that you are just going to walk through the door. I sometimes think I am just going crazy. I have a hard time remembering things, even simple things. I find myself driving to and from work in a daze, sometimes I am at a light and can't remember how I even got there. Your birthday is on Friday, how am I going to get through that day? I am not going to work, cause I already know it would be useless for me to try and do so. I told my boss I wanted off and he understood. I am sure I will spend the day very sad and crying. Victor I am so hurt, I just don't know how to come out of this one. I know you want me to be strong, and I am trying so hard. But to have to wake every morning knowing I won't see you or hear you or touch you talk to you, is so hard. Angie is working a second job now so I don't have her around me to keep me busy. Freddie is gone a lot with his friends. So it is usually just me and Aidan here at night. I try to stay busy so I don't sit around and think about this all the time, but sometimes I just get so sad I can't do anything. I try hard to overcome it, but sometimes I just can't Victor, and I have to just sit down and let it out. Sometimes I cry quietly and sometimes I cry really hard. The worst thing is I cannot do anything about it. I can't bring you back, I can't wish you back, believe I have tried. I can't dream you back.

I love you Victor so much. I am going to miss you for the rest of my life. I will forever have tears falling down my face.

Please come and visit me in my dreams baby, I will be waiting for you.

Always and Forever, Love MOM

Mommy

Hi sweetheart,

I have to say that I have had such an uneasy feeling the last two weeks. I don't know what it is, I just know I feel something. I was so worried last night when Angie and Freddie went out. But they got back home to me ok. Thank you.

I think I am just feeling kinda lost maybe, I know your birthday is so near. Maybe that is what is causing me to feel weird. I have just been really emotional, more than usual, which is quite bit when you think about it, lately.

We took Aidan to see The Chornicals of Spiderwick today, and I teared up watching that movie. I found myself trying to hold the tears in so they would not run down my cheek. But than I feel my insides grasping for air because I realize I am holding my breath. Sometimes I think I may be going crazy, but I am not sure. One minute I feel ok, the next I feel as though I am lost. Just wondering around in a place where I don't belong. Looking for something that will bring me back. I keep telling myself I have to get out and do something, but I don't want to go out.

I thank God for Angie, she has been my salvation. If not for her Vic I would probably be in a mental hospital by now. She gets me out, even if it is to a movie. We went to I-Hop to eat before we went to watch the movie and of course I just thought of you. I know how much you liked going there. It seems no matter what I do I think of you and times we where all together. I guess that is why I just can't leave Texas. Not right now anyway. I have you everywhere I go it seems. I can't let that go not just yet. Baby, I miss you so much. My heart just aches and my tears just keep coming. I have been pretty good at keeping them to myself lately. I know most people probably think I should be moving on by now. But I just can't yet. God says it is okay for me to grief, and there is no time frame to wrap around it; so I am going to let my heart ache as much as it needs to ache. And I don't care if people think I weak, right now I am.

I love you baby, please watch over us, me angie and freddie. We need you so much, even though we cannot see you anymore, or touch you, smell you, hug you. We still need you. So please Victor, please stay close and continue to let us now you are always close. Even if it is something subtle.

I will dream of you tonight, I hope you come and join me.

Always and Forever, Love MOM

Mommy

♥♥♥ Hi sweetheart,

I want to tell you that I sometimes think I am starting to handle not having you, but than I find myself deep in a state of grief. I start to cry and I miss you so much. I just can't still believe this has happened to us. I know it has been six months; to me it feels like it was just yesterday that those people came to our door to tell us the what had happened.

i think about so much, I think about you being trapped in that car and they could not get you out in time, I think about my baby there, alone with not one there to hold you. I wish I could have been there to hold you sweetheart, God knows that is what tears at me so much. I think about it all the time. I often wonder if you where aware of what was happening. I remember waking up that night at about 2:30 and sitting up so fast in my bed. I remember not being able to sleep restfully, and I remember hearing someone crying.

Baby, I wish I could just turn back time for a split second, I would beg God to take me instead. I ask so many times why, why would he take you? Away from your boys, your family, your friends; who all held you so dear to their hearts.

I have such a hard time everyday, everyday I have to wake up and the first thing tha hits me is you are gone. I can't see my sweet son today. I can't touch him, can't tell him I love him, can't hold him and talk with him. I keep trying to tell myself that all this pain is going to go away and time will ease it all, but I think it will be years before that happens. God took a large part of me when he decided to take you. I hope God knows how much you meant to me. I hope God understands when sometimes I feel like I have been beaten. Because sometimes I feel like I have. There is not a day goes by that I do not sit in a state of torment when Angie and Freddie are not home safe. I can hardly breath until they walk through the door. And the bad thing is I was like this before your accident, always worried over you three, praying to God to bring you all home safe. I don't know baby, maybe I did not pray hard enough that night. Maybe God was busy and didn't hear my pray er that night. Maybe God forgot me that night. I kinda feel he did. That he forgot about my prayer that night. Because he did not bring you home to me.

I just pain so much Victor, so much. I cannot put this pain into words. I just want to wake up and see you standing there. Smiling and laughing like you do. Making everyone around you laugh too. I just want to feel your kiss on my cheek and hear you say momma I love you. I want to hear Angie and Freddie laughing and jokihng with you. I want to have my family back where it was. There is so much missing now Victor, so much. How do I pick up my broken heart baby, how do I do it. I know I am very emotional right now, your birthday is coming up. I would be asking you what you want and you would be telling me, "It don't matter Mom, you dont have to get me anyting, and I would still push you to tell me what you want. And you would finally tell me something. I would look at you and smile and tell you "something I can afford Vic, cause you probably told me something crazy.

I hurt so much sweetheart, you are so young, it just does not seem fair that God would take you. But Freddie tells me Mom he only seems to take the Good Ones. Freddie is right. Because baby you where one of the good ones. Everyone loved you and you always had so much to offer. And you where one that could be counted one, even if it was asking you to stop and bring home a cup of coffee for your Mom. You would give us a hard time, but you always provided us your unconditional love. You always made yourself available for our needs. I never for a moment thought I would not be able to count on you. I thank God for you, for what brief time He gave You to us. I have and am a blessed Woman. I know our family has gotten a little bit smaller, but I know too that you are always right there guiding us and watching over us. Sometimes I feel your presense so strongly Victor. I smiled and just let myself relax, because I know it is you. I can't see you, I cant touch you, but I know it is you. I know, because I feel a sense of calm rush through me . A sense of don't worry Mom, it is going to be ok. I know you are sad you had to leave us, I know. I know you where not ready, but I know you are okay baby. And I know you are just waiting for us now. Watching over us and waiting for us to come home to youi. I long for the day when I can see your sweet face again. To see that bright beautiful smile. But I know I have to finish this first. I am still needed here. Angie and Freddie and my grandbabies still need me. So I have to stay. But there will not be a day that goes by that I will not miss you. Everytime I look at Angie and Freddie I miss you.

Victor, I love you with all my heart my sweet son, and one day we will all be together again. Sitting around and laughing and being a family.

Always and Forever, MOM

Hi baby, Well another weekend has passed without you. Yesterday Freddie took us all out to the park. Old Settlers. We always did enjoy going there. He cooked a nice lunch on the grill and the kids all had fun running around. It was warm and breezy. The sun was bright and I was missing you so much. April and Akil came out and ate with us.

I almost started crying sitting there, but I was able to control the tears. Angie came out after she got off work. It was a nice day, because we were all together. I am sure you were hanging out there with us too.

Afterwards, we came back to the house, but April and Akil went home. We just hung out in the house and we all kinda did our own thing. I played on the computer, messing around with Myspace. And Freddie, Angie and Tanya watched TV. They went out around midnight to get some food, because we were all hungry again. Funny because we had plenty of leftovers in the fridge, but you know how it is Vic, it's funny to go out and get something. I guess it was around 1:30 when we all finally turned in.

Today we didn't do much at all but stay in the house. Angie and I helped Aidan get his school project ready for Monday morning, and Freddie just hung out in his room and watched TV. It was really windy today and gloomy, spitting rain off and on but never raining hard. You know how it is here in Texas.

The weather is warming up though, I am glad. The leaves are all coming out and the sun feels so good. But I know I am going to think of you all the time, because whenever we all go out as a family I am going to have that void heavy on my heart.

I miss riding on your bike with you, I told Freddie today if he would take me for a ride. He put the small spoked wheel back on, I don't think he really cares too much about riding anymore. He doesn't have you around to go out with.

We all miss you so much Victor. Life is so different now, it is like it has been turned inside out. Nothing feels right anymore.

I love you sweetheart, I miss you so much. I have you in my heart always and my thoughts eternally.

Mommy

I miss you.

I am just sitting here reading through the messages and crying. I am trying so hard Victor so hard to get up. I think I am doing a little better. I am going to try harder. I have been praying a lot, asking God to help me. Can you make sure he hears my prayers Vic. You know this is just all wrong baby. Everything is.

We worked so hard to be where we are. We went through so much, all of us, to overcome some really crazy hardships. But we did. We found our place, together as a family. And everyone was so happy. But know you are gone, and our world seems to have been destroyed, washed away in a brief second.

I wish that God would grant us just one wish sometimes, just one in our lifetime. One small little wish.

I so miss your laughter, I think I miss that more than anything. You bring laughter where ever you went. If you were there, someone was smiling or laughing. God I miss you so much. I listen to the little video we got off your phone. And I hear your funny laugh, and I can't help myself but to laugh too.

I know I will see you again Victor, it is just so hard know, having to continue on in this life without you. I am a mother and I have lost my sweet son. My baby. Sometimes I feel like I should have been there to hold you, comfort you. It hurts me so much you had to be alone in the dark. I only pray the angels took you ever so gently. I wait every night for you to come to me in my dreams. To hear your voice and see your wonderful smile.

So I am going to go to bed know sweetheart. I will be waiting for you.

Always and Forever, MOM

Mommy

Hi sweetheart. I miss you so much. It was a nice day. I cleaned up the back yard this afternoon, but I don't feel good now. I have been sick. I went to the dr's again and they did a CAT scan on my sinuses, because I keep getting these sinus infections. This one is kinda bad, I have had really bad headaches, sore muscles and joints, just like the flu. Anyway she gave me some more medicine and I felt better today. You know me, I was up and doing stuff instead of resting. Well I should have just stayed in and took it easy. I am getting ready to go to bed now though.

Angie is getting ready to start school. I am so glad. I really want her to get an education so she can get a better job. I don't want her to have to struggle like I did. She will do good. She said when she gets done with this she is going to go to collage.

I was going through my box of stuff I have saved when you kids where young and still in school. I sat in my closet and just cryed and cryed. I still have your baseball shirts and your boy scout stuff. Remember the car you made and raced in boy scouts? I still have it. I pulled out your sports cards. I am going to send them to Lil Vic. I know you would want him to have them. I am going to send them off to him, he will be really happy. I never did get around to pulling them out when he was here. He asked me so many times. I believe he will enjoy going throught them and organizing them. He asked me to send him is football too. So I will send that with the cards.

Baby, I feel so lost sometimes. I am just having such a hard time adjusting to not having you. Everyone keeps telling me it is going to be alright, but I keep waiting. Everything I do reminds me of you. I just wish I could close my eyes and wish you back, but it don't ever work. I open my eyes and you are still gone. I love you Victor so much. Baby, please come and visit me in my dreams. Kiss you mom on her cheek. Bring a smile to my face.

Always and Forever, MOM

Angie

Hey Vic,

I'm back from New York. I had fun. It was nice to visit Geronimo. I got to see a lot. We went to Manhattan, Brooklyn, Times Square, Harlem, and Queens. The driving is crazy up there. I would never be able to get around, I would probably get lost everytime I went out. It was cold too. The first night I was there was the coldest. I rode the train to and almost fell as soon as I got on. It was funny. I love and miss you Vic.

Love,

Angie

Mommy

Make me proud to stand next to you.

So many voices call out your name,

So many hearts that are still in pain.

Your sweet face, so warm and tender

A Mother's joy to see your smile.

Your laughter, so large and grand,

Seem to echo across my heart.

Your tenderness in a man's heart,

You came into this world so fearless and brave,

You fought to overcome so many enemies.

You touched and found love in many,

You yet where lost in your own heart.

I love you my Son, and no words could express the depth,

no song can bring to music the love I hold for you.

I cry so much everyday, in the dark where my tears belong to me.

I cry for the hole in my heart that will not heal. I cry for the boys who will become men and not have you there to guide them.

I cry for a brother and sister that are one less, one without, one more day they must move on without you.

I cry to hear you call out to me, to come to me when you need someone to talk to.

I cry because my baby is gone and I cannot touch your face anymore.

I cry when I feel my heart crack a little bit more whenever someone speaks your name.

I cry because I miss you.

I love you Victor so much, I miss you more everyday.

Always and Forever, MOM

Mommy

Hi Sweetheart.

It is Sunday night, Freddie's watching the all-star NBA game, Aidan is in bed, and Angie is in New York City.

I spent the weekend in the house, missing you so much. I just felt like you were really close to me all weekend. I washed the curtains and just piddled around the house, trying to get time to pass. I printed a lot of pictures off to send to Lil Vic. I hope he likes them. I have to send him his football too. I am going to try and get them off this week. I miss those boys so much. I sit and wonder what they are doing.

I wonder if I will ever be the same again, it seems my whole life has been turned inside out. It is like I keep expecting to see you burst through the front door like you always have smiling and lighten up the room with your presence. Or jumping on my bed on Saturday mornings to wake me up. Opening my eyes and seeing you there with that big ole smile of yours beaming at me. I remember how it would bring such a large smile on my face. God I miss that so much. I think of the times at the lake, I don't know if I will ever go there again. You coming by and taking me rides on your bike, just because you knew how much I love it. I was never afraid riding with you, even when we would go fast. I always felt safe. I loved that you always felt comfortable showing your affection for your momma. You have been my angel forever, You, Freddie and Angie. God blessed me so much with you three. I just don't understand why he would take you from me. After all we have been through, after all the mountains we climbed and all the struggles we went through as a family. We made it through so much, and it was our love for each other that got us through. We will still get through. I know you will be right by our sides in everything we do. I know you will always be near us and keeping us close to you. We miss you so much in everything we do.

Good night Victor, I love you with all my heart.

Always and Forever, MOM xoxoxoxox

We Pray

"I Pray (Never Forget)"

You know with each day that passes by, I pray to god I'll never forget who you are.

You mean everything to me.

I love you

Oh I pray

You were in my dream
Before I even knew that there was a you and me,
Now I can't wait to see your smile,
When I wake up each day,
It makes it worth while
With the kinda love you plant inside,
Specially with a heart so empty as mine.
All your soft tenderness is the one thing that I don't wanna miss.

I pray,
When it's time for me to say goodbye
I'll never forget looking in your eyes,
I pray,
That I feel your touch
And that God doesn't forget our love,
I pray,
When I close my eyes,
I can still see visions of you on my mind.
I pray,
That I see you in another life,
I pray that you still by my side.
Oh I pray.

Everything that you give to me,
Only comes in a fantasy,
It seems like life goes by so fast,
But in this time I wanna make it last. (I pray)
I hate that we live to die,
But only God knows why (I pray)
We all have a purpose,
And to see you again it'll be worth it.

I wish that I could stop time,
I wish that I could rewind,
To the very begining of every second of my life.
To ask God on my hands and knees,
To never let me forget all my special memories.
See I'm only promised today,
And if it's my time to go,
I don't want the love of my life to ever fade away,
So one last time
Let me open my eyes.
To see what my life used to be like.
Oh God.

Angie

Hey Vic, I miss you so much. Its so weird to think that the rest of my likfe will be spent with out you physically in it. I guess it will always be weird. It still doesn't make any sense with you being gone. I just sit around and think of you or what we would be doing if you were here right now. I wish that time could be turned back or I could be granted one wish. Life is just so unfimilar now. I miss the boys so much too. I know you are watching over them. I cant wait till the summer to see them. Jason will probaly be walking by then. Well Vic I love and miss you so much words could never fully explain it. I will think of you always and keep you in my heart forever.

Hi baby,

I miss you so much. I had a nice birthday but it was sad to because I didn't have you here to share it with me. Angie bought me some new tops and some new bed stuff. Freddie put new speakers in the Olds, it sounds really good. I got to talk to Jenn and Lil Vic Friday, it was so good to hear their voice. The boys are sick though. Jenn said they are getting better. She is taking Lil Vic to the YMCA and he seems to like it. Jenn said he got on the Honor Roll, I am sure you are proud of that Victor. I just wanted to jump through the phone and hug um, I miss them so much.

Angie and I went shopping today, we just spent all afternoon in the stores. It was nice, I haven't done that in a while. I will be mad at myself later for spending the money, but today I didn't care. It was nice to just get out and it was such a beautiful day, so warm and the sun felt so good. I thought about the lake today too, I was thinking how you would probably want to go. Angie took me to Outback too for lunch for my birthday, I got a big steak and couldn't even eat it. But I brought it home for Freddie.

Baby, I miss you so much every minute of everyday. I didn't make a birthday wish this year, because it would not have come ture anyway.

I love you so much sweetheart. I am getting ready to go to bed now. Please make sure Angie and Freddie get home safe to me Victor. Watch over them while they are out and keep them. Please come and visit me in my dreams tonight. I love for you to visit me. Kiss your mama on her cheek and put a smile on my face.

Sweet dreams my sweet son. Always an d Forever. MOM

Hi sweetheart,

It is Sunday and the Superbowl is on. April and Akil are here, and Tanya. Everyone is enjoying the game. There is only thing missing and that is you. It still feels empty for me when I hear Freddie laughing and your laugh does not echo with his. Akil and Freddie have been hanging out a lot with each other. I am happy to see that. It is good that they are close. Akil got the razor sharp tatoo, It looks nice. They really need each other.

I went to my counselling session tonight, but I left early because I am not feeling well. I have a doctors apt tomorrow morning.

Angie has bought her ticket to go to New York. She and I went to Lane Bryant today and she bought a bunch of new clothes for the trip. She is so excited, I hope she has a good time.

Axia called today and I asked her if she still wants to come and visit. She said she does, so I am going to try and buy her a plane ticket. I can get her one for 179.00, that is really cheap. It will be nice to have her here, we haven't seen each other since your dads funeral. I want to speard your ashes on your birthday, but if she comes out I am going to wait, she said she would like to be there. I am going to take you to the lake baby, because I know how much you loved being there. It will be hard to do, but I want you to be free.

Victor I miss you so much. I know I have to try and learn how to live without you. I think this grief counselling is going to help a lot. I have to allow God to take my pain and surrender it to him. I know he has you and you are safe. I just miss you so much. I hate not being able to see you everyday, it is just like everything I do makes me think of you. Even when we went to the outlets today, I thought of you and I could see you walking there with us. The last time I went there it was with you and Angie, remember. We took Lil Vic school shopping. I still have the picture you took of him in the store. He was all smiles. He loves his daddy.

Vic, please always stay close to us and remember me. Let me know you are here and watching over us all. I know I will see you again soon and I will be able to hug and kiss you. I love you with all my heart and soul.

Always and Forever, MOM

Hi baby,

I miss you, but you know that. It seems lately that I have been crying a lot. I feel like I am just getting so depressed. I just don't want to do anything but sit in the house when I'm not working. I thought I was doing better, but the last couple of weeks I feel like I am right back where I was. I am crying on the way to work, on the way home, at night when I go to bed and start my prayers. I just feel so mad inside and I feel like I can't stand to be around the people at work anymore. I just want to scream and yell and hope that will make all this pain and torture inside of me go away, but I know the only thing I will have when done is a sore throat. My heart will still ache and my soul will still want you back. It hurts me so much to see Angie and Freddie without you, to see the boys without you. To know Jenn has to raise them without you. I can't stand feeling like this, but it won't stop, it won't go away. I try to be happy and even sometimes I hear myself laugh out loud. When I do I of course think of you and your wonderful laugh that I will not hear again. Victor, please hold me and help me. I am so tried inside. My energy is gone and I look in the mirror to try and see me and I can't. I only see a very sad woman standing there. A woman with a broken heart. I look into her eyes and I see the tears well up in her eyes and watch them fall down her cheeks. I have to look away because her pain so intense. Baby, please come to me and show me it is going to be ok. Help me get through these days. I love you so much. Kisses and Hugs my sweet son. Always and Forever.....MOM

Hey Vic,

I wanted to come by and tell you that you were heavy on my mind tonight. I was very sad, looking at your pictures and wishing I could be sitting around the house with you. I just got upset thinking about Lil Vic and Jason, all the reasons we came out here are gone. I miss the boys so much, just thinking of you makes me think of them. I wish we could see them everyday. I know you are watching over them. Jen sends us pics and little videos of them every week so thats nice. I try to give Lil Vic a call once a week too. I cant wait till April to see them. Jason will be so big, its going to be crazy. Well I am going t go to bed. Just wanted to let you know that I love and miss you so much Vic. You will always be on my mind and forever in my heart.

Hi Victor, I just watched the videos your Mom put on your site. I loved every one of them and I cried a lot, of course. They took me back to things I almost forgot and now I can't forget them. Luann and I were going through the snapshots the other day and oh boy, some of the nutty ones we came across, we laughed ourselves silly. Luann E-mailed some pictures of you and the kids to your Mom, I hope she got them okay. I think of you all the time Vic. You and Angie and Freddie were always so close to me and I love you all dearly, now you are all 3000 miles away from me. I talk to Mom on messenger quite a bit, but it's not the same as being there with her. I'd love to be able to hold her and comfort her but I can't so it's up to you sweetie. Wrap those big angel wings around her and let her know that you will always be there to protect her and love her and help her through this ordeal of losing you. I love you Victor, Grandma

Hi Victor,

It is Monday. I went to a grief share counsel group yesterday. I was afraid to go. I didn't know what to expect. but I am glad I went. As soon as they asked me to introduce myself I started crying. It was very hard to sit there and tell a room full of strangers that I lost you. I cried a lot. But afterwards I kinda felt a little tiny bit ok. It was nice to feel free to cry and talk about you. It seems no one really wants to stop long enough to let you cry. The group is for 13 weeks, I am going to go every sunday. It is in the evening, so I still have plenty of time to do what I want before I go, and besides, I really don't want to do much anymore anyway. I find I feel better just sitting in the house and keeping myself as busy as I can. I miss you so much Victor so very much. The is only one other person that lost a child. She is 82 years old and her daughter dies on Sept 22. Just shortly after you left. I could see she has a lot of pain too. She spoke of things that I felt too. How she feels better staying home away from everyone, how she has to push herself to do anything. I think her and I will become good friends, I hope we do. I told my group how I felt that everything is such a mistery, how no one can explain how the accident happened. I told them is seems as though your car was just lifted off the road and drove into that tree. That there where no tire marks anywhere. I told them that I am really mad at God for taking you, they told me that is okay and that God understands why I feel like I do. I have a workbook too, I have to do different things in it everynight. Read passages from the bible and try to relate them to my loss. I want so much to just have you back, I know that I have so much healing to do. We watched a video, and some of the people on there said that don't let anyone tell me that 3 months, 6 months 1 year or even 10 years is long enough to grief. That each person takes a unique time to accept what has happened. One person said that the grieving has never really stopped for her, even after years have passed, that it is only easier to deal with the emotions when they come over her. I know deep in my heart baby that my heart will forever ache and my soul will forever yearn for you. I know you are always close to me and the family. I know you will always continue to watch over us just like you did when you where here with us. I can feel you at times and I smile, because I am happy you came to visit with me. Baby please continue to let mommy know you are close to me. My heart is just so broken. I don't feel like me anymore I feel like I am just moving through the days and waiting for night to come so I can hide in my bed and cry myself to sleep. Please wipe my tears when they come and kiss my on the cheek.

Blowing kisses to heaven Always and Forever MOM

Hey Vic,

I just go back form hanging out with Josie ande we went to eat dinner and go bowling. I wanted to write you because so many things made me think of you tonight. Like when me and mom came to visit how we went bowling and how much fun we all had together. I will miss times like that for the rest of my life. Also Josie asked to see the ring I wear of yours and of course that made me think of you. Then someone we were with was asking me if I knew certin songs that were being played and you know you were the king of music trivia always asking me who was playing or what cd it was. You were always happy when I told you the rihgt answer. Well I love you and miss you very much Vic. Goodnight. You are in my mind always and in my heart forever.

Hey Vic, its been awhile since I've written you. But we had to change your site. Even though I wasn't writing I was always thinking of you. We all miss you so much. The whole thing still seems unreal to me. Aidan talks about you everyday. He really misses you too. He has been putting on your colone before school, I can smell it on him when he gets home form school and of course it reminds me of you. I talked to Lil Vic Friday. He said he likes his new school and that he has a few new friends. Jenn sent us a short video of Jason crawling. I miss them so much. I wish we could see them. But I will have to wait until April. Hopefully If everything goes as planned I will be going to New York for a couple of days too in Feb, to visit Geronimo. That will be fun cause I've never been. Well I love you with all my heart Vic. Please know that you are always on my mind and forever in my heart. I love and miss you.

Hi Vic,

I cleaned out the garage today. It took a long time, but I did get things a bit more organized. It felt good to be really busy. Then I came in my room and hooked up a receiver to my TV. It took forever, but I did it too. I put up some pictures and did some laundry, all in all I had a busy day. But I needed to stay busy, cause Angie and Freddie have been gone most of the day and I cry a lot when I am buy myself. While I was in the garage I had the radio on. So many songs started playing that reminded me of you. You know which ones, cause I am pretty sure you where there. I cried a couple time cleaning the garage. I cried while I worked on my room. I cried when I folded my laundry. I guess I am really missing you today. Jenn texted me the other day and told me Lil Vic likes his new school, she said he thinks everyone talks funny there. That made me smile. She also told me Jason is really crawling about now. I think he will walk early like you did. Those boys are so sweet. Jenn said she will be getting internet soon, so that will be really nice, cause we will be able to stay in touch more. It is just hard for me to get through the weekends now, because I don't have the boys to keep me busy. I so miss holding Jason in my arms and having Lil Vic running about and keeping my on my toes. He is so much like you, so full of energy.

Aidan lost his first tooth today. He is really excited about that. But Angie has to take him to the dentist cause his big teeth are growing in behind his baby teeth. He goes on Tuesday. I got the brakes, rotors and drums on the Olds, well Freddie and James did it for me. James is going to put on the struts for me too. I still have to get the drivers side door fixed. I drove it to work on Friday. I felt good to drive it, I guess cause you where the last one to drive it anywhere. I just felt like you where with me. Angie and I are trying to excercise everyday. I hope we can keep it up. Mia is starting to wien the puppies already. I have started them on food. They like it. April is going to take one, and Grandma wants one, but I don't know if I can afford to have him flown to DE. I think we will keep the little girl that Angie has gotten attached to. They are so sweet Vic, I love them. Well, sweetheart I am going to go eat, Angie just made us some hotdogs. I love you so very much and I miss you with all my heart. Please stay close baby and let me know you are near any way you can.

Always and Forever, MOM

I picture you walking up the path
and walking through the door
I listen out for your gentle laugh
but i cant hear it anymore

I hold my hands out everyday
Hoping for your gentle touch
But i dont feel your warm hands touch me
Its a feeling i miss so much

I wait for you to wipe my tears

But you want yours wiping too
And everyday still hurts so much
Because my life is missing you

I keep your memory in my soul
It burns so bright each day
And all the things i have in my mind
Theres three words i want to say

I Miss You

Mommy

Hi Vic,

I have been working on your new site all night. i hope you like the way it is coming together. I kinda like this one better, but I have been having trouble getting some things to upload. I wrote a letter to customer service, hopefully they will respond and help me.

I miss you so much. I don't know what I would do if I did not have something like this to go to. It helps me so much to work on this. I sit here and find myself smiling, so that is good.

I love you sweetheart, I long for you. I know time will eventually help me to cope with all this, but I think it is going to take a long time. Please stay close sweetheart, and continue to let me know you are always close to me.

Kisses and Hugs

Hey Vic, it's a slow day at work today and I am just sitting here missing you. I hope everyone had a nice Christmas. I thought about you all day yesterday, but I know you were there in spirit. My mom and dad bought my wedding dress for me for X-Mas, that was really exciting. I really wish you were here to be at my wedding in April. It's going to be rough having a huge piece of our family missing, but that's something we all deal with on a daily basis and it really doesn't get easier. If anything it gets that much harder. I love you Vic!

Merry Christmas Victor, It was lonely without you. The boys all received a lot of presents. Jason was content chewing on the wrapping paper. I'm sorry I'm not as happy as you would want my to be, but I am trying. I received some nice gifts, but I am sure you are here with us and seen what everyone got. We will be going over to Akils and Aprils later for dinner. We are going to take the boys, because they want to see them before they leave. Vic, I will stay in touch with them. I told Lil Vic he has to write me a letter once a week and tell me everything he did that week. I love you Victor so very much sweetheart. Merry Christmas baby. I miss you.

Hi baby, it is Christmas Eve, I am sorry that I have not been very festive. I really am trying hard. I feel better now that the boys are here. But I now that I will be very sad after Christmas. This will be my last weekend to spend with them for a long while. Victor please watch over them and keep them safe. Angie, Jenn and Freddie are watching a movie, waiting out the boys to fall asleep, I went in a few minutes ago and Lil Vic is still awake. He asked me if Santa came yet. I smiled and told him no, not till everyone is asleep. He wants everyone to go to bed. I told him we would once the movie is over. I gave him a hug and kiss and covered him up. He said he can't sleep, so I told him to count backwards from 100 real slow and that would help him get sleepy. I am going to go in a check on him again in a minute. He is very excited. I took the bell outside their window earlier, like we did last summer and rang it. It was hard not to laugh when I heard there excitement from the bells. I could here Angie telling them to hurry and get under the covers. When I went back in to kiss them goodnight they both where wide eyed and told me they heard bells. I played along and told them they where hearing things, they told me no quick, they heard bells. I put my ear to the window trying to listen, they got quite. I couldn't here them, :)

I told them to let me know if they hear them again. It was fun.
I miss you victor and wish you where here. Please bless us and watch over us my sweet angle son.

Merry Christmas Vic. I love you and miss you very much. The boys were with us this morning. They had a good Christmas. But I know you were with us. Lil Vic loved his xbox 360. Aidan got a psp. Jason got a whole bunch of baby toys. This morning Lil Vic said he heard the reindeer on the roof last night. I thought that was cute. I love you Vic. I will think of you always and you will be in my heart forever.

I have been very emotional lately, but I think it is because I know you won't be here for christmas plus the boys will be leaving right after Christmas. I guess we are going to April and Akils for dinner, Jenn said we can take the boys. I know April and Akil want to see them before they leave. And I am sure Lil Vic wants to see Devon. Hey Vic,

You have been on my mind constantly the past two days. Maybe that's you coming to check on me and letting me know you are with me. I really miss you Vic. I wish I could just rewind time and stop this whole thing from happening. I still can't understand how I have to live the rest of my life without one of my brothers. It just doesn't make sense to me. I still think everyday that it's not fair, and why did this happen. I wish I could get an answer. I guess God needed you more than he thought we needed you. I know you are protecting us and watching over us, so that always helps a little. I just wish you could be here with us physically, to hug, joke with, get advice from, hang out, go shopping, or just sitting around the house talking and cutting up like we use to. I miss you everyday Vic. I will think about you always and have you in my heart forever.

I am going to make one for the house to and put it in a garden. I know just how I want it to look too. I am going to have a chair sitting there too so I can sit there and read or just be quite. I wish you were here, Christmas just does not seem very happy to me. I am trying to enjoy it, but it is just so hard baby. I love you and miss you with all my heart and soul sweetheart.

Hi Baby, I miss you! I thought of you a lot today at work. I went on your Myspace and read a message your grandma left you. I started crying at work when I read it. I am sorry Vic that I seem weak sometimes, but baby this is so hard for me. I just can't do this. I will cry for the rest of my life. I already know this. I feel as though I am lost sometimes, just going through the day and waiting for it to end so I can crawl into my bed and cover my head. I lay there and the tears usually find their way out, and I cry for you. I fall asleep nearly every night with you on my mind. I wake with you still there. If only God would allow us more things in our lives we could change, just one, I would ask for you back. I would give up all my worldly possessions, my own happiness, my own life, if only God would let you come back. Baby I just want someone to tell me why. I just want to know and understand this. There are a million bad people out there, people who hurt and kill, why would he take you. All you ever did was care and love people. You are a good dad, a good son, a good brother. You always protected those who you love. Now we stand here without you near us, and I worry every minute for Angie and Freddie, because I know they do not have you here anymore. I worry for the boys, especially Lil Vic, who is going to protect them. They are going to be so far away, I am going to worry all the time.

Victor, I love you sweetheart, with all my heart. Please stay close to me baby and hold me up. I feel very frail and thin. Help me to heal.

Please come to me tonight, kiss my cheek.

Hi Vic, I am sorry I haven't wrote the last couple days. It has been sorta of a busy weekend. We did a lot this weekend, last minute christmas shopping and all. I managed to get what I could this weekend. I know didn't have enough money to get for everyone, but I hope they know I love them. I have been working on your present too. I hope you like it. I think it looks nice, and I think everyone else likes it too. I couldn't sleep last night, you where so heavy on my mind. I cried for awhile, but I usually do when I start to think about you so heavy. My heart still hurts everyday sweetheart. I know you are close, because so much keeps happening out of the blue. I smile. I felt someone sit on the edge of my bed the other night. Was that you? I think it was, because I was not afraid. I looked up and than layed back down and felt comfort. Mia's puppies are growing really fast, but I am sure you are watching them too. Mia is not a very good mommy, maybe because she is so young. She keeps them feed and cleaned, but at night she leaves them and sneaks into the bed with me and crawls under the covers because she is cold. I wake up and put her back in the box with the puppies. We will probably keep one of the girls. Angie has named one Flower. I wanted to keep the little boy, but I have Mia and you and Freddie gave her to me, so I will let Angie keep one of the pups for herself. Well sweetheart, I am really sleepy tonight, I hope I can fall asleep. Please come and see me in my dreams and kiss your mama on the cheek. I love you Victor so much baby. Keep us close and safe.

It will seem so weird not being able to talk to you, or give you a present and a hug, or taking family pictures with you. I will never understand why this happend it jsut seems so unreal. When I'm happy I feel bad cause your not there to share that with. Or when I need to tell someone something you were always the first one I called. I hate the whole thing. I wish I could go back in time and change on little thing so that this would not have happened to us. Our little family will never be the same, it will have lost out on someone great, and we will have lost out on someone great. Be it just advice, a hug, a kiss, a shoulder to cry on, anything you would have offered us is lost so thre for we have lost something too. We will always love you and miss you Vic. I asked him what was wrong and he told me he misses uncle Victor. He misses you so much Vic. You and Freddie have such a positive part of his little life. Thank You baby. He will always remember you. I sent Lil Vic home with some pictures of you for his new bedroom. I don't want him to ever not see your face. I am going to miss them so much, I don't know how well I am going to cope once Jenn leaves with them. They have both been my strength to stay strong.

I love you so much Victor and I miss you everyday. I still struggle everyday with the question of why my son. But I just don't seem to get any answers. It seems all so mysterious. Hi Baby, It is Saturday. Jason has another ear infection. I think he might have to get those tubes in his ears. Jenn has taken him to the doctor. The poor baby just coughed all night and he woke up with watery eyes and a really stuffy nose. He has been pulling at his ears, so I am sure they hurt. He is getting so big Victor. He loves to play, and I dance around him when music is on and he loves it, he laughs and starts moving. It is so cute. Sometimes is sounds like he is trying to sing. I am sure you are watching and smiling. I miss you a lot today. I will always miss you. I think of you so much, my questions just keep going back to why. I am so hurt this has happened to us. We where four muskateers Victor. Now there is a part of our team missing. It is the loneliness when I wake in the morning and know I wont see or hear you that day.

We are going to take the kids to see the Christmas lights later. It will be a nice outing for them. I will take plenty of pictures for you.

Hey Vic, I was thinking of you, but that is always. We all miss you so much. Aidan asks about you all the time. I will never understand why this happened. I sit and think of why all the time, and I never get an answer. I hate it. It's so weird to think about our lives without you. We will all be missing someone so special and it will always seem as something is missing. I was telling mom and Fred that we should go see a movie next Saturday, I said we should have a family date, and as soon as I said it I wish I hadn't because our family is not the same now, and I felt bad for saying it, because you're not here with us. I know you are watching over us and are with us all the time, but that's not good enough. I want you to be here to talk to and hug, and I want to be able to call you on my breaks, and hear you making jokes, and being loud with Fred. I miss you so much. I love you and I will think of you always Vic. You are always on my mind and forever in my heart.

Hi Victor,

Well I went back to work today. It was not to bad. The day went by fast, I had a lot of stuff to stiff through. I didn't miss that traffic I have to drive through everyday. I was really sad yesterday and last night. I am sure the closer we get to Christman I will get sadder. Everyone around has been so supportive though. I love it when Akil and April come over. They always have a hug for me. I haven't done any Christmas shopping, I am sure I won't do much this year. I just am not up to it. Just not in a shopping mood I guess. Freddie is keeping it lively around here, you know he would. He is always trying to make us laugh and playing. It is just that you aren't there next to him know laughing and playing with him. It was sad to look at the picture of him frying the turkey this thanksgiving, you wheren't standing there next to him, it made me sad. Everything makes me sad now it seems. I hope I can get better Victor. I just find myself feeling so broken inside. I have pictures of you everywhere. I like to sit and look at them with your big beautiful smile. Baby I love you so much, I miss you!!

Come and visit your mom in my dreams tonight. Kisses and Hugs.

Hi baby. It is Friday, the last day of November. I slept a lot today. Just stayed on the couch. I did go to the store, we made homemade cheesesteaks. They were good. I bought you a new candle for the mantel. I love you Vic, I miss you so much. I wish I could you have back, life just has changed so much. Nothing is the same anymore. Jenn will be leaving with the boys soon. You know how this is breaking my heart too. I am sorry things are not as you would want them sweetheart, but I will try my best to stay in contact with the boys for you. I know that is important to you that we stay in their lives. I am going to go to bed now, I am really tired today for some reason. I love you and miss you.

Hi Victor,

I put up the Christmas tree today. I put up two. The first one was one of those fiber optic ones. You would have probably teased me for buying it. I took it back because it stopped working. I got a regular one and put lights on it. I had it all done and then decided to try and move it over, well it fell over. I was so mad. I went outside to pick it up. Went back in, picked it up, took everything back off. And then cleaned up the broken glass. Then I put the tree back together again. I found that the big lights I put on it were burning the garland. Good thing it fell over, I would not have known they were so hot for the tree. I took them off and just put on the little lights. It is funny now, thinking about the tree falling over. It was like slow motion. I am sure you were laughing, because I know it looked funny. I miss you so much Victor, I wish you were here.

Baby please visit me in my dreams tonight and kiss me on the cheek. I had you on my mind all day today. Dana is here, I like it when she visits. She is such a good girl. Kisses and Hugs Baby,

Laurie Molcany (kathryn Coleman's Mommy)

Laurie Molcany (kathryn Coleman's Mommy) lit a candle on 13th November, 2007:

When tomorrow starts without me,
and I'm not there to see;
If the sun should rise and find your eyes,
all filled with tears for me;

I wish so much you wouldn't cry,
the way you did today,
while thinking of the many things,
we didn't get to say.

I know how much you love me,
as much as I love you,
and each time that you think of me,
I know you'll miss me too;

But when tomorrow starts without me,
please try to understand,
that an Angel came and called my name,
and took me by the hand,

and said my place was ready,
in heaven far above,
and that I'd have to leave behind,
all those I dearly love.

But as I turned to walk away,
a tear fell from my eye,
for all life, I'd always thought,
I didn't want to die.

I had so much to live for,
so much yet to do,
It seemed almost impossible,
that I was leaving you.

I thought of all the yesterdays,
the good ones and the bad,
I thought of all the love we shared,
and all the fun we had.

If I could relive yesterday,
just even for awhile,
I'd say goodbye and kiss you and maybe see you smile.

But then I fully realized,
that this could never be,
for emptiness and memories,
would take the place of me.

And when I thought of worldly things,
I might miss come tomorrow,
I thought of you, and when I did,
my heart was filled with sorrow.

But when I walked through heaven's gates,
I felt so much at home.
When God looked down and smiled at me,
from His great golden throne,

He said, "This is eternity,
and all I've promised you".

Today for life on earth is past,
but here it starts anew.

I promise no tomorrow,
but today will always last,
and since each day's the same day,
there's no longing for the past.

But you have been so faithful,
so trusting and so true.
Though there were times you did some things,
you knew you shouldn't do.

But you have been forgiven
and now at last you're free.
So won't you take my hand
and share my life with me?

So when tomorrow starts without me,
don't think we're far apart,
for every time you think of me,
I'm right here, in your heart. I pray you find comfort in this poem. I definitely feel your pain, I lost my 10yr old daughter on Sept 11, 2007 and my life hasn't been the same since. There is nothing like losing a child. May God Bless you and your family and I will forever keep you in my prayers. Please feel free to visit my Kat Kat's site. Vic I know its getting close to Christmas, so I wanted to remind you of a few Christmas's past. First I will start with every year when we lived in Milford how on Christmas eve we would all go into my room with our blankets and turn on the radio and listen to Christmas music for hours and talk about what we were going to get, then we would finally fall asleep and wake up before the sun to go check the Christmas tree to see if Santa had come or not. Then we would wake mom up and she would always make us brush our teeth first before we could open presents. How about the year we saw Rudolph the Red nosed Reindeer at that kids house for hours, and we just kept looking and they were still there and we were just like wow they must have been really good this year. I love you Vic you are in my mind always and in my heart forever.

Vic, remember when we where at the lake that day. Angie and Jenn wanted to leave, so they took the boys home. Me, you, Freddie and Geon stayed. We all grabbed a beer and paddle out to the bouy. Than we just linked up to each others floaty and sat out there and drank our beers and laughed till it was almost dark.

That was a good day baby. I miss the lake. I miss you.

Hugs and kiss sweetheart. I love you, Always and Forever, MOM

Hi Baby,

I miss you. I cried myself to sleep again last night. I thought I was doing good, because I went on whole day without tears, but they came anyway. I thought of you a million times today. I think we will have a full house for Thanksgiving after all Victor, and it will be all that where close to you. I like to believe that you had something to do with it. Bringing us all together. This way you can sit down and enjoy yourself, because we will all be in the same house. I love you Victor so much. You are my angel baby.

Always and Forever, MOM

Hey Vic, I was found a photo of Angie and me going to homecoming back in the day. Those times were so fun when you all lived here, I never had a boring weekend. Remember when those church people came out to the house on fairveiw Ave. I'll never forget that. lol You and Freddie had me and Angie laughing when we were supposed to be praying. That little old man was praying and you guys were outside being loud and one of you hit the air conditioner. He jumped Then there was buzz. I miss him . He was all up in the mans face!!! So many great memories. Its funny when I think of you all of them have me laughing. All good memories. I miss you Vic.

I will never forget you, not for one second. Everything I do, everywhere I go you are there in the front of my mind. I worry over you, I wish I could just see you to know you are ok. But my faith tells me you are. I turely believe that you are still close to us. I can't see you, but I feel you often. I know you are close and holding me. I HEAR EACH TEAR.....

My mom doesn't know i'm watching her,
but i'm watching her just the same.
And I see each tear fall on her face,
at the mention of my name.

She says it sounds like music to her ears,
and can be heard over a crowd.
Oh I see each tear fall on her face,
when my name is said aloud.

I watch her stumble through each day
as she wishes the day would end.
And I hear each tear fall on her face
as she talks of me with her friends.

But there are few who truly understand,
oh this i've heard her proclaim.
And I hear each tear fall on her face,
will my mom ever be the same?

I know her smile can light up a sky,
but I don't see that smile today.
Oh, but I hear each tear fall on her face,
her blue skies have turned to grey.

Oh, I send her my warmest hug
with the rays of the morning sun.
Then I won't hear a tear fall on her face,
for I shall erase them one by one.

Yes, my mom doesn't know i'm watching her,
but i'm watching her just the same.
And if I hear a tear fall on her face
I'll just softly whisper her name.

Mom, please listen to me
as I take the time to write.
I see parents struggling daily,
Their pain is such a fight...

All of us who've gone
And left the rest of you behind...
We're ok, Mom, I promise ...
Heaven is beautiful and God is kind.

You used to tell me that one day
God would call and take you home.
You told me you'd make me strong
So I would stand tall when alone.

But things happen, Mom
That does not go in our plans,
I wasn't scared, Mom,
When God held out his hand.

I didn't want to leave you,
I didn't have time to say good-bye
When the angels said, "Come with us"
There wasn't time to question why.

I've watched you daily, Mom.
It hurts to see you cry.
I don't want you to be unhappy,
Just because we didn't get to say good-bye.

Tell others what I'm telling you,
So many parents need to know
That Earth was just a layover
We had another place to go.

I know you miss me, Mom
I know your heart was broken in two.
But God really needed me
Because my earthly life was through.

I'm always alongside you...
I smile and touch your hair.
I whisper "Mom, I love you"
You just can't see me there.

I'm the one that gently touches you
On your shoulder when you're sad.
I'm happy now that you finally found

God again, and are no longer mad.

Tell the parents, Mom, for me
That all of us kids are okay.
God had plans for our lives
When he called us home that day.

I love you, Mom, I always will
And remember I'm not far away.
We're going to be together
When God calls out your name.

Vic this was sent to me by someone very dear to you. I love you dearly my sweet son. MOM

I didn't die with you
Was not laid to rest
So why am i so far gone
I no longer see me like i no longer see you
Photos are placed
And the memories are left in place
Show your face
Make me remember
Bring back my September
Stop these tears
Must face my fears
I cant bring you back
But i wont walk away
I try to forget
Yet i try to stay

I want to let you go
But I'm holding on you know
My mind is saying goodbye
But my heart is saying no.

Victor, I will always hold you, I will never let go. MOM

CAUSE FOR CELEBRATION:

"Not by lamentations and mournful chants ought we to celebrate the funeral of a good man, but by joyful songs, for in ceasing in being numbered among mortals he enters upon the heritage of a deviner life"

I love you Victor. MOM

Baby, life has seemed to slow with agonizing pain. Everywhere I turn, everything I do, every breath I take you are there. I only wish to reach out to you and hold you. I want to touch your face, see your smile, smell you. I want to hear you call out to me. I want you to ask me to iron your shirt. I want you to hug me. Everywhere, everything, every day I long for you. My heart aches like it has never ached before. I only can dream of you, and hold you in my sleep. I love you so much baby. So much. MOM

Life Story

every hour, every thought, every smile...

March 14, 1980

Born in Delaware Wilmington, Delaware on March 14, 1980.

March 14, 1980

14th March 1980

Victor was born on March 14, 1980. It was a happy day. You see I fought to keep this child. I hemorrhaged while carrying him at the end of my first tri-mester. I was taken to the hospital where the doctors determined I had lost him without doing any tests. They were ordering a DNC to clean out my uterus. I asked what was happening and when they told me I immediately refused the procedure. I told them I wanted to wait until my doctor could examine me. They were not happy about my decision and told me if that was that case I had to go to my doctor right away. I scheduled an appointment for the following morning. When I got to my doctor's office he was sceptical and didn't think the baby survived. They performed an ultra-sound and to everyone's surprise my little baby was still there and still alive. He seemed weak and I was still bleeding. I told the doctor I did not want a DNC, I wanted to wait and see if he would be ok and if the bleeding would stop. He agreed and sent me home with instructions on taking it easy. I went back the next week and I was still bleeding. The exam showed that Victor was still alive but not growing. This went on for about 5 weeks when the doctor announced that he would give me one more week. He said the baby is not growing and I have been bleeding too much. I left the office feeling rather beaten and started talking to my baby. Asking him to please be ok. I prayed to God to please let my baby be ok. About 4 to 5 days passed and I noticed my bleeding was stopping. When my next appointment came around I went to feeling very scared. The doctor performed another ultra-sound and his face lit up and he said "Oh My God". He scared me so badly I nearly started to cry. I asked what was wrong and he said I can't believe this! I am now very scared and asked him to please tell me. He said he has never seen anything like this before. The bleeding had stopped all together by now and he proclaimed the growth of the baby in just a week's time was magnificent. He told me the baby seemed strong and well. The heart beat was good. He smiled and I smiled back. I knew right then I had a very special child growing inside of me. My little fighter. I carried Victor for the rest of my term with no problems. I went into labor on the morning of March 14, 1980. I went to the hospital once my contractions became strong and they kept me to give birth. I was given an spinal block to help with the pain. It numbed me too much and I was not able to push the baby out. They had to pull Victor out with the forceps. I was scared again. Finally they were able to get him out but they discovered the umbilical cord was wrapped around his neck tightly. He was bluish looking. The doctor grabbed the cord and struggled to get it off from around his neck. Finally they succeeded and worked on him to breathe. He took a deep breath and let out a wonderful cry. My sweet baby made it. He was here with me at last. They laid him across my chest and I could feel his little heart beating against mine. How beautiful he was with his black hair and tiny little hands. I cried.
